

HR ANALYTICS STAKEHOLDER REQUIREMENTS

1. Stakeholder Requirements

Business Requirement

The HR department wants a dashboard to monitor employee attrition, workforce distribution, and employee demographics so that management can make better hiring and retention decisions.

Stakeholders and Their Needs

1. HR Manager

Needs:

- Total employee count
- Active employee count
- Attrition count and attrition rate
- Employee age and experience insights
- Department-wise employee distribution
- Salary slab analysis

Purpose:

- To reduce employee attrition
 - To improve employee engagement
 - To understand workforce structure
-

2. Senior Management / Leadership

Needs:

- Overall attrition percentage
- Departments with highest attrition
- Workforce trends
- Key HR KPIs

Purpose:

- Strategic workforce planning
 - Budget allocation
 - Business growth planning
-

3. Recruitment Team

Needs:

- Departments with low employee count
- Age-group distribution
- Experience-based attrition trends

Purpose:

- Better hiring strategies
 - Talent acquisition planning
-

4. HR Analysts

Needs:

- Interactive filters by department and age group
- Visual representation of attrition patterns
- Employee segmentation analysis

Purpose:

- Data-driven HR reporting
- Trend analysis
- Predictive insights preparation