

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Overall Workforce Insights

1. Total Employees = 1,403
 2. Active Employees = 1,176
 3. Employees Left Company = 227
 4. Attrition Rate = 16.2%
 5. Average Employee Age = 36.97 years
 6. Average Experience = 7.05 years
-

Attrition Findings

1. Attrition by Department

- Highest attrition is in the Administration department.
 - Sales department also shows high employee turnover.
 - Marketing has comparatively lower attrition.
-

2. Attrition by Gender

- Male employees contribute more to attrition compared to female employees.
 - Male attrition count is around 144 employees.
 - Female attrition count is around 83 employees.
-

3. Attrition by Experience

- Employees with very low experience show the highest attrition.
 - Attrition gradually decreases as experience increases.
 - Experienced employees are more stable in the organization.
-

4. Attrition by Salary Slab

- Employees in the 0–3 LPA and 3–6 LPA salary slabs show higher attrition.
- Employees with higher salary packages show lower attrition.
- Compensation may be a major factor affecting retention.

Employee Distribution Findings

1. Department-wise Employee Count

- Operations department has the highest employee count.
- Finance department has the lowest employee count.

2. Age Group Distribution

- Majority of employees belong to the 26–35 age group.
 - Employees aged 55+ are the least in number.
 - Workforce is mainly composed of young and mid-level professionals.
-

SUGGESTIONS / RECOMMENDATIONS

Employee Retention Suggestions

1. Improve Retention for New Employees

- Provide better onboarding programs.
 - Conduct mentorship sessions.
 - Improve initial training and support.
-

2. Salary and Benefits Improvement

- Review compensation for lower salary slabs.
 - Introduce performance-based incentives.
 - Provide employee benefits and rewards.
-

3. Department-Specific Action Plans

- Investigate reasons for high attrition in Administration and Sales departments.
- Conduct employee feedback surveys.
- Improve work-life balance and workload management.

4. Employee Engagement Programs

- Organize wellness programs and team activities.
- Conduct regular employee satisfaction surveys.
- Recognize employee achievements.

5. Career Growth Opportunities

- Provide internal promotions and learning programs.
- Create clear career growth paths.
- Encourage skill development and certifications.

6. Diversity and Inclusion Focus

- Monitor gender-based attrition trends.
- Ensure equal growth opportunities for all employees.